ROANOKE VALLEY 1864 WAR BETWEEN THE STATES LIVING HISTORY

It was July 1864, the 3rd year of the war. Confederates have just turned back the advance of Federal forces under General David Hunter at Lynchburg. The Confederates, under General Jubal A. Early, pursued Hunter's army to Salem and chased them out of the area at the battle known as Hanging Rock. Most of Early's army is on the move marching towards Washington, DC. There were a few that stayed behind recovering from wounds and helping secure Salem and the Roanoke Valley.
